8 COMMUNICATION AND MARKETING

This section sets out certain information and options on how ACCA may communicate with you, the types of materials which ACCA may send to you and the extent to which ACCA will discuss your details with certain third parties. By signing the declaration, you give your consent to ACCA using your data for the purposes and in the manner indicated in this section, except to the extent you opt out; for Third Party Marketing Material you may opt out by ticking the box; for ACCA Promotional Material, ACCA Support and communications methods you may opt out by logging on to myACCA and changing your preferences.

Communications methods - ACCA may communicate with you by email, phone or by post using the contact details provided on this form or otherwise provided by you. Email is ACCA's preferred method of sending general correspondence, publications and promotional information.

ACCA promotional material - In order to assist you with your studies and help you to get the maximum benefit out of your course and ACCA's services, ACCA may send you promotional materials relating to ACCA services and events.

ACCA support - ACCA often communicates with employers to discuss membership improvements and ways in which ACCA can provide enhanced support towards advancements through your qualification. When communicating with employers it is often helpful to provide a list of names of those ACCA contacts who are working at that company.

Third party marketing material - ACCA would like to keep you informed of products and services from third party organisations that may be of interest, relevance or benefit to you in your professional/study capacity. All are strictly vetted and the mailing/email list is never given directly to the advertising party. All campaigns are carried out by ACCA or an ACCA approved agency.

I do NOT wish to receive third party marketing materials.

Data protection

ACCA may use your personal data (provided on this form or otherwise collected during the course of your relationship with ACCA) in order to;

- administer your application and any subsequent ACCA membership
- administer and monitor exams, courses and experience (if applicable)
- send you publications and other communications (produced by ACCA)
- respond to enquiries and investigate complaints
- comply with ACCA's regulatory obligations

For more details on how we collect and use your personal data, please refer to our data protection notice, available at www.accaglobal.com/documents/protection_notice.pdf or alternatively contact ACCA using the details set out at Section 11.

9 DECLARATION

I wish to apply for registration as a Diploma in International Financial Reporting (DiplFR) student of ACCA. I understand that my eligibility will be based solely on official documents about my qualifications that I have previously sent to ACCA. I have enclosed all relevant details. I have disclosed details of any past events referred to in ACCA Byelaw 8 and understand that they will be taken into account in dealing with my application, but that they will not automatically stop me becoming a DiplFR student. I declare that I have included anything ACCA needs to know, and understand that any failure to disclose past events referred to in ACCA's Byelaw 8 may render me liable to disciplinary action. I understand that once I have registered, I could be liable to disciplinary action under ACCA Byelaw 11 for events set out in ACCA Byelaw 8 which occurred before or after I registered. (See notes below before signing.) I agree that while I am registered with ACCA, I will tell you about any event which may engage ACCA Byelaw 8 and make me liable to disciplinary action. I agree to comply with ACCA's Charter, Byelaws, Regulations and Code of Ethics Conduct from time to time in force. I declare that I have read and fully understood the declaration above and that the information I have given on this form is correct. I understand that any false or misleading statement in this form could lead to disciplinary action being taken against me and/or may invalidate any decision reached on this application. I consent to ACCA processing this information under the Data Protection Act 1998 and understand that this information, together with any subsequent correspondence and documentation will be retained by ACCA in a database, and/or disclosed, for administrative and regulatory purposes. This will include disclosure to the relevant body with whom ACCA has made an agreement (see list below*). I understand that any such disclosure may be to a country outside the UK that does not have laws to protect this information.

* Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland; Serbian Association of Accountants and Auditors; Slovak Chamber of Auditors; Chamber of Auditors of the Czech Republic and Union of Accountants of the Czech Republic; Lebanese Association of Certified Public Accountants.

NB. This list will be updated regularly and is available on ACCA's website.

Notes ACCA Byelaw 8 sets out the details of the events which could lead to disciplinary action. These events include (but are not limited to) the following:

Incompetence in carrying out work; breach of ACCA Byelaws or Regulations; disciplinary action against you by another professional body or organisation; bankruptcy or insolvency; failure to satisfy a judgement debt without reasonable excuse within two months; misconduct — this includes (but is not limited to) any act, or failure to act, that is likely to discredit you. The following events are conclusive proof of misconduct: conviction for a criminal offence which discredits you or ACCA or the accountancy profession, or is derogatory to ACCA or the accountancy profession or a finding by a court in civil proceedings, that you have acted fraudulently or dishonestly.

Copies of the ACCA Rulebook are available for reading online at the ACCA website http://www.accaglobal.com/members/professional_standards/ethics/rulebook or at ACCA offices.
