

The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants Policy Statement: Copyright infringement

ACCA has made, and continues to make, significant investment to develop globally recognised and relevant qualifications. In order to protect the integrity and quality of the whole range of qualifications, all aspects of ACCA's qualifications* are protected by copyright.

ACCA does not permit, under any circumstances, the unauthorised copying, reproduction or translation of ACCA's qualifications. ACCA's entire suite of qualifications remains the intellectual property of ACCA and should never be held out as the intellectual property of another party.

Any attempt to copy, replicate or translate any aspect of ACCA's qualifications is an infringement of ACCA's intellectual property rights and, as such, provides grounds for ACCA to pursue a claim for copyright infringement.

ACCA will pursue copyright infringement claims in the event that any of the circumstances outlined below occur:

- Copying, reproduction or translation of the content of any part of the ACCA's qualifications
- i) in full
- ii) where it is found that the substantive part of a text is a copy, reproduction or translation of any part of ACCA's qualifications
- Copying, reproduction or translation of the style and/or design of any part of ACCA's qualifications.

ACCA expects all stakeholders and interested parties to respect the intellectual property rights subsisting in its qualifications.

* ACCA's qualifications include the syllabus and examinations for ACCA, the Foundations in Accountancy suite of qualifications, DipIFR, CertIFR, CertIA, DipFM as well as ACCA's Foundations in Professionalism, the Professional Ethics Module and the objectives outlined in ACCA's Practical Experience Requirement.
