We are delighted to invite you to our Annual Christmas lunch in association with ACCA Cymru Wales and sponsored by Barclays Bank. Our special guest speaker is, Guto ap Owain Bebb MP for Aberconwy and member of Finance Committee, House of Parliament.

Guto ap Owain Bebb MP is a Welsh Conservative Party politician and the Member of Parliament (MP) for Aberconwy. He was first elected in the 2010 general election having previously contested elections to both the Welsh Assembly and the House of Commons

Guto was born in Wrexham in 1968 to a family who originated from Bangor and Blaenau Ffestiniog, and was a student at Ysgol Syr Hugh Owen in Caernarfon. He graduated from the University of Wales, Aberystwyth in 1990 with a BA in history. He subsequently ran an economic development consultancy and also worked as the business development director of Innovas Wales. He was also a partner in his wife's bookshop. He is a former Plaid Cymru activist and was chair of the party in Caernarfon. He defected to the Conservatives because of his Eurosceptic views. Guto first stood for the Conservatives in 2002 when he contested the safe Labour seat of Ogmore in 2002 by-election caused by the death of the veteran MP Sir Raymond Powell. He finished in fourth place many votes behind the victor, Huw Irranca-Davies and stood again in the 2003 Welsh Assembly election in which he was a candidate in the now-defunct constituency of Conwy. Guto came third, behind Labour and Plaid Cymru.

At the 2005 general election he stood again in Conwy, this time coming second behind Labour. In the 2010 general election, boundary changes led to the creation of a new constituency called Aberconwy, based on the former Conwy. Bebb was selected as the Conservative candidate for this new seat. The Conservatives won the seat and Bebb was returned as the MP for Aberconwy with a majority of 3,398 or 11.3%.
